

Map of Greece

Theo travelled from Rhodes to meet the Pythia, the priestess of the Apollo Temple at Delphi. Pythia was the most famous oracle in ancient Greece. Pythia advised Theo to travel to the Isle of Cos to meet Hippocrates, the Father of Medicine. So Theo, his dog Cerberus and Lexi Catt travelled by sea to Cos.

Theo, Cerberus, Lexi and Hippocrates travelled by sea again to the city of Olympia for the Olympic Games, where Theo competed.
